Battle of the Books Teams Compete in Regional Battle on Saturday, September 16th

On Saturday, September 16th, eleven students from Philipstown are heading to Dutchess Community College in Poughkeepsie to compete in the 13th Annual Battle of the Books against 26 libraries from the Mid-Hudson Library System.

The Cold Spring/Garrison team is calling themselves The Spinecrackers and members include William Denehy (6 gr.), Aoife Fortuna, (7 gr.), Raunaq Kapoor (7 gr.), Sophia Kottman (9 gr.), Rowan Kuzminski (7 gr.), Elaine Llewellyn (6 gr.), Lorelei McCarthy (7 gr.), Henry O'Neil (6 gr.), Percy Parker (6 gr.), Luke Parella (8 gr), and Aidan Sullivan-Hoch (7 gr.). The team is coached by Maureen McGrath of the Butterfield Library and Lucille Merry and Beth Vardy of the Desmond-Fish Library.

Whatever the outcome of the Regional Battle, these students are winners for their dedication to reading and teamwork!

After Hours at the Library: Back to School Bash

WRITERS READING at the LIBRARY

Writers Reading at the Library Series

Author & Memoirist Margarita Meyendorff will discuss her book:

DP DISPLACED PERSON

The daughter of a Russian Baron, Mourka (Margarita Meyendorff) was born in a Russian displaced persons camp in Germany - far from the the opulence of Imperial Russia which was her birthright.

Her father danced with Anastasia, attended balls and military schools, but a series of wars destroyed this privileged existence. Mourka's parents were displaced and forced to flee their ancestral estates and run through Nazi occupied Germany.

Saturday September 16
4 - 6 PM
